Reynolds House, formerly North Hall, is one of the oldest buildings on campus. Dating from the late 19th century, it was initially used to house students in the Wagner College High School.

Currently the building houses the Alumni & Development Office and the Communications Office. The student-run Coffee House is located in the basement.

Page taken from former Wagnerpedia web site.

October 2012